Slave Ownership, Competition, and Masculinity in Medieval Egypt: Evidence from the Cairo Geniza

Cambridge University Library: T-S 10K8.13—A responsum of the Egyptian Jewish jurist Abraham Maimonides (d. 1237) concerning a man who has left his family to live with his enslaved concubine

Prof. Craig Perry

University of Cincinnati

FRIDAY NOVEMBER 17, 2017 12PM-2PM

PHELPS HALL ROOM 401